

THE 19th HOLE

NOVEMBER 2017

The Seeka Whangamata Womens' Masters Tournament clashed with a weekend of bad weather and the ladies managed only half a round on day one before play was called off, the course then flooded and subsequently play was abandoned for the weekend. It was extremely disappointing for organiser Raewyn Marshall and her team who had done such a great job in preparation for the tournament. However, the show rolled on, Saturday evening's entertainment was very popular with all the ladies dressing up for the theme "Come to the Mardi Gras" and the dancing got quite lively as the night wore on. Probably some were lucky there was no golf the next day!! All prizes were given out on a spot prize basis, and everyone went home happy.

The Womens Strokeplay Champs were also held last month.

	Winner	Runner Up
Silver	Debbie Adgo	Jill Agnew
Bronze 1	Andrea Moore	Chris Somerville
Bronze 2	Yvonne Barr	Rosemarie Rutherford
Bronze 3	Sue Jurisich	Pat Mortensen

Congratulations to the winners and runners up, and a special congrats to Debbie Adgo for her 5th consecutive win in this competition.

We at last managed to pick a day for fine weather and get the Sponsors Day tournament played - good enough for the team from Russell Choat Plumbers to take honours again, from The Physioroom and BRN Kitchens. Once again, a big thank you to all of our sponsors who contribute significantly to the clubs finances.

The comedy evening with Gary McCormick and Mayor Tim Shadbolt delivered lots of laughs and some tears of hilarity to the 119 people who attended. It is no mean feat to ad lib 2 hours of jokes without notes but they managed to pull it off seamlessly. One visitor learnt that sitting in the front row was not the best place to be and quickly found himself the night long object of Gary's banter and humour.

Always keenly anticipated each year is the Shootout. Played over 9 holes, this year didn't disappoint with Peter Morgan taking out the Mens event from Brett Wilson who beat Dave Barrance in a chip off for 2nd place. In the Ladies event, Sharon Haslam won the putt off to take out the honours for the 2nd year in a row, beating Pat Mortensen. Congratulations to both winners, and to all the finalists.
